

INTERNATIONAL ACADEMY OF LINGUISTIC LAW
ACADÉMIE INTERNATIONALE DE DROIT LINGUISTIQUE

Lisboa, Portugal and Montreal, Canada, June 15th 2007

"LAW, LANGUAGE AND GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP"

Lisboa (Portugal), from July 16th to July 19th 2008

CALL FOR PAPERS (2 pages)

FIRST Circular (for immediate release)

The Eleventh International Conference on Law and Language of the International Academy of Linguistic Law – LAW, LANGUAGE AND GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP – will take place from July 16th to July 19th 2008 (Wednesday-Saturday), in Lisbon, Portugal in co-operation with the Association of Teachers of Portuguese Language (APP) at the Gulbenkian Foundation, at the following address: Avenida de Berna, 45, 1067-011 Lisboa (www.gulbenkian.pt)

The working languages of the Conference will be Portuguese, English and French.

The General Scientific Committee of the Conference is formed by Profs Eduardo Vera Cruz, Fernando Cristóvão, João Malaca Casteleiro, Maria Antónia Espadinha, Maria Emília Ricardo Marques, Maria Helena Mira Mateus, Maria José Grosso, Mário Filipe and Paulo Feytor Pinto (Portuguese Scientific Committee) and by Profs. Claudine Brohy, Denise Daoust, Angéline Martel, André Braen, Joseph-G. Turi and José Woehrling (IALL-Scientific Committee).

For more information concerning registration, accommodation and to send abstracts of proposed papers, please contact directly as soon as possible the Portuguese Committee at the following address: Bairro da Liberdade, 7-R/C-9, 1070-023 Lisboa, Portugal; e-mail: aprofport@app.pt; website: www.app.pt; tel.: (+351) 213.861.766; fax: (+351) 213.861.819.

A copy of each abstract must also be sent to the IALL-Scientific Committee at the following address: IALL-AIDL; suite J-4; 6000, chemin Deacon; Montréal (Québec); Canada H3S 2T9. E-mail: academy.inter@sympatico.ca website: www.iall-aidl.org; tel.: (+1) 514.345.0718; fax: (+1) 514.345.0860.

Abstracts of papers (200-400 words) should be sent before February 3rd 2008.

The registration fee (in euros) is €150 for participants registered before March 31st 2008 and € 200 for participants registered after that date. The fee for students and participants presenting approved papers will be €100 and €150 respectively.

This circular is also available in Portuguese and in French

The topics of the conference shall include:

1. Language Rights in the constitutions of the world
2. The meaning of global citizenship
3. The politics of languages and rights
4. Globalization and/or localization of languages (Glocal language planning)
5. Multilingualism and linguistic rights; the right to language diversity
6. Linguistic minorities, lesser used and endangered languages and human rights
7. Language rights before the courts and the law
8. Language rights in education
9. The language of law and citizenship
10. Language and global technologies
11. Translation: managing global intercomprehension
12. International language planning or policies and linguistic intercomprehension
13. Emerging languages of wider communication or the rise and fall of languages of wider communication
14. Language and international right(s)
15. Colonial language planning or policies
16. The right to languages of wider communication and the right to mother tongue
17. Language diversity and international language planning or policies
18. Languages of wider communication and national culture(s)
19. National institutions for international language policies
20. The economics of international language planning or policies
21. Language industry and international language planning or policies
22. European and/or Global Citizenship and linguistic rights

This circular is also available in Portuguese and in French